Admission Criteria

The Beacon College Admissions Team conduct a highly individualized assessment of each candidate's application and documentation. Criteria for admission includes:

- Diagnosis of a specific learning disability or ADHD.
- Average to superior intelligence as measured with a cognitive assessment conducted by a licensed psychologist, neuropsychologist, or school psychologist; or a certified school psychologist.
- Candidates must be socially mature and have demonstrated motivation to complete the academic requirements of an accredited college. These qualities are assessed in interviews with the professional staff and through psychological evaluations.
