Dear Friends,

It is with great pleasure that I join you in celebrating the 25th anniversary and founding of Beacon College. You should be proud of this great milestone and all that your school has accomplished over the years.

Since its founding, Beacon College has been committed to empowering students with learning disabilities through education. As the first college in the nation accredited to award bachelor degrees to students with ADHD and other impairments, Beacon College has truly set a great example for modern higher education. I am proud of your school for its initiative and dedication to ensuring equal learning opportunities.

I look forward to hearing of your continued success in higher education; please accept my best wishes for an enjoyable celebration of your anniversary.

Sincerely,

Marco Rubio
United States Senator
