

By now you should have heard from your professors already regarding your classes' plan for remote learning. If your class is utilizing the Zoom platform, then you can find written and video guides below to help assist you with: joining a scheduled meeting and testing your audio and video.

Joining a (Zoom) Meeting -- <https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/articles/201362193-How-Do-I-Join-A-Meeting->

How do I Test My Video? -- <https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/articles/201362313-How-Do-I-Test-My-Video->

NOTE: Unless specified otherwise by your professor, you are not required to have the Zoom desktop client. See the Testing your video while in a meeting section for testing video without the client.

Testing computer or device audio -- <https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/articles/201362283-How-Do-I-Join-or-Test-My-Computer-Audio->

If you have any questions about the above or require assistance, please contact the ithelpdesk@beaconcollege.edu.

Brett Daly

Systems Analyst
Beacon College
(352) 638-9781 voice
(352) 787-0721 fax
bdaly@beaconcollege.edu
www.beaconcollege.edu

105 East Main Street
Leesburg, FL 34748
Campus Tech & Safety Building