

America's first four-year accredited college exclusively for students with learning differences

Located in central Florida in the heart of downtown Leesburg (approximately an hour from Orlando), Beacon enrolls nearly 450 students from across the country.

Beacon is fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC). The College offers more than a dozen bachelor's and associate degrees in such areas as anthrozoology, business management computer information systems, human services, interdisciplinary studies, psychology and studio arts, plus an intensive four-year career development model.
